

Elisa Huang, MS, RD, CPT

Director – Business Solutions

Elisa Huang attended the University of California, Berkeley, where she studied Nutrition Sciences. Her early career found her at Kindred Healthcare as a Clinical Dietitian.

Elisa is passionate about preventative health and has worked with at-risk youth in marginalized communities to teach and educate about youth fitness and wellness.

Nutrition philosophy

“The first wealth is health.”

✦ Ralph Waldo Emerson

Elisa believes that having good health fuels many important aspects of life - whether it be physical, mental or emotional. Understanding nutrition is a key element to fueling many of these areas.
